Common borders. Common solutions.

About the project:

Duration: 24 months

Total Project Budget: 459,415.80 Euro

Total Grant ENPI: 296,682.75 Euro

Total Grant IPA: 116,791.47 Euro

Start / End Dates: 12.03.2013-11.02.2015

Overall Objective:

The project is aiming to develop the maritime culture in the Black Sea basin, through emphasizing the common maritime traditions of the partner countries and to enhance the preparedness of the professionals involved in the maritime industry (maritime/river transportation, shipbuilding, fisheries, offshore oil/gas extracting industry, ports, environmental research, humanities and so on).

Specific Objectives:

1. Recognition of the common navigation and trade traditions of people linked for millennia by the Black Sea and its main tributary, the Danube.
2. Development of new or updated lifelong education, training and research programmes, in order to cope with the new technological and economic trends in the maritime industry.
3. Promotion of the professional and personal values of the maritime occupations.

Main Activities:

- Increasing public awareness regarding the rich maritime cultural heritage and promotion of the professional qualifications related to modern maritime transportation in the partner countries through conferences, seminars, trainings, exhibitions, documentaries.
- Design and implementation of a collaborative integrated platform (MARPLAT) for the transfer of maritime knowledge, skills and research results among the partners involved in the Action.

Expected results:

- Maritime history events (International conference, experts' seminar, cross-border exhibition).
- Maritime education, training and research conferences, study programmes and short mobilities for teachers and students, held among the partners.
- Direct promotion of the maritime heritage of the Black Sea basin's peoples by the means of a monograph, a documentary film and other materials disseminated mainly to high schools.
- Design and implementation of the maritime education platform (virtual portal) MARPLAT as the main forum of the joint Action MARINE.
- Design of new maritime river transportation and port management curricula/syllabuses, which will be the first maritime & river transportation study programmes in the Republic of Moldova.
